JACK REID HONORED

Jack Reid was honored at the General Membership meeting on April 18 with the Volunteer of the Year Award. Jack was presented a plaque and a Lifetime Membership for his numerous volunteer hours to the San Juan Wildlife Federation. The award was presented by Bill Thompson, Board Member, and Wayland Moore, Executive Officer of the Club. A great cake was enjoyed by all.

TRAP & SKEET

Bill Thompson

The trap league is at the half way mark. Attendance has been very good this year. The range is open to the public for practice Mondays and Wednesdays at 5:00PM and Saturdays at 9:00AM. Skeet is Shot on Saturdays about 10:00 AM and Thursdays at 1:00 PM starting May 11th. For more info call Bill Thompson at 330-9894.

FRIENDS OF NRA NEWS

The Friends of NRA banquet set a record this year for fund raising. They topped the $100,000 mark which will get San Juan County in the top five fundraisers in the US.

Remember, we receive much of our funding for range development back from the NRA. The SJWF membership had a large showing at this years banquet. Were you there?
