TRAP & SKEET

The fall trap league was a great success. This year we had the largest turnout yet.

First place team went to Doug Hutson's team with Doug Hutson, Don Miller, Christine Maestas, Bill Thompson and Gerald Jones.

Second place was Christensens' Crushers with Dave Christensen, Richard Mason, Jerry Olsen, Terry Burson and James Walker.

The High Overall Score Trophy went to Club Member Ty Bowker. He soundly beat all the regulars and is now the one to beat. Great shooting Ty.

The winter league is now forming and will be shot all winter long until the time changes.

Winter hours are Saturday morning at 10:00AM until finished. Skeet is shot at 11:00 AM

If you have a group of people or company outing that would like to make arrangements for a special time to shoot please call Bill Thompson at 330-9894

.22 INDOOR SHOOTS

The improvements to the indoor range have been completed. I would like to express my appreciation to Wayland Moore for his acquiring the funds and supplies not to mention organizing the improvements. All that was done was to increase the safety of this range. Others that took time out of their lives to make these improvements (that I recall or know about) were Phillip Smith, Mike Deneen, Jack Reid, and Jim Liapis. Thanks to all of you!

The Thursday evening (7 P.M.) Indoor .22 shoots will once again be in operation beginning November 1st. We will open the evening's shoot with the Hunter Rifle paper silhouettes. Forty (40) rounds will be shot during the match with rifles (or pistols) with open sights or scopes. Once we complete the Hunter Rifle, we will begin the .22 Pistol (or rifle) Bulls Eye shoot. Ninety (90) rounds will be shot during the match with open sights or scopes.

These are fun matches and provide great practice to stay in shooting shape. The cost to shoot is $3.00 per person for the evening. (If you'd rather shoot bulls eye targets during the Hunter Rifle shoot, you may.)

Sincerely,
Charles Phelan

I would like to sell a Hungarian made AK-47 (AMD65) w/
one 30 round magazine and carrying case.

It has a sidefolding wire stock, a vertical fore-grip and is in great condition.

Asking price is $450 OBO.

I also have a Ruger SP101 Stainless - hammer less model.

It has had a trigger job performed by a professional gunsmith to lighten the trigger. It includes a holster 4 speed strips and one speed loader.

Asking price is $400 OBO.
