STATE 4-H CHAMPS

The San Juan County 4-H Shotgun Shooting Team #1
traveled to the NRA Whittington Center in Raton, NM
to compete at the NM State 4-H Shooting Competition. The weather lived up to it's usual cold, rainy, windy self, seen in the past 4 years of competition.

The morning of May 2, the team woke up to 100% humidity and 80% visibility. They decided to go ahead and shoot because the weather was supposed to get worse through out the day. In spite of the heavy fog at 8:30 AM, San Juan County's Shot Gun Team
#1 took the lead immediately, and never looked back,
winning 1st Place. The team was required to shoot 50 clay pigeons in trap and 50 clay pigeons in skeet, for a total of 100. The team individual and scores are as follows:

Chad Moss - 92	High Point (1st Place)
Duane Hayes - 88	(4th Place)
Robert Sanders - 86	(5th Place)
Brett Moss - 85	(6th Place)

The final score is made up of the top three, dropping the lowest score. Therefore the team score was 266.
The second place team (from Lea County) only had 249 points.

TRAP & SKEET

SJWF hosted the 3rd Annual SPE Oilman's Shootout & Chili Cookoff on May 1st and 2nd with 30 teams competing for top honors in trap, and bragging rights for the best chili recipe. Despite rain and windy conditions everyone had a great time and enjoyed good food. SJWF members Steve Van Houtan won the Class A championship, Jeremy Mohler won the Class B championship and Bill Vickers won Class C championship. Cameron #3 won the chili cookoff competing with many tasty chili recipes. The Three Rivers Team #1 (Rod Pinkett, Terry Bowker, Tyrell Bowker, Jimmy Kennedy and Richard Lopez) won the first place championship. Thank you to all who participated and helped make the event a success, including SJWF personnel, Cullin Johnson, John Thomas, and a special thanks to SJWF member Brock Hendricksen who will be leaving the area and relocating to Texas."

The Spring league will end on May 27th with a banquet being held about 6:00 pm and everyone is invited to bring a side dish, if possible, and attend the festivities. Summer league begins June 3rd and runs for 10 weeks.

The shotgun range is open for trap league and practice on Wednesdays at 4:00 pm and Saturdays at 9:00 am until about noon. Skeet is shot at about 11:00 am. The shotgun range is open to the public on Wednesday and Saturday only. For more information or to schedule a special event at the shotgun range, call Bill Thompson at 330.9894."
