

Charles Phelan, SFTR Booshway, presenting Ken Bomboy, SFTR Segundo, with an engraved fire starting tender tin for his help with the Santa Fe Trail Rendezvous.

Mr. J.D. Griffith receiving his Lyman percussion rifle.

Mr. Ken Christensen with his Lyman flintlock rifle.

The Santa Fe Trail Rendezvous was enjoyed by a good number of folks this year with 96 camps. Not only did we have a great number of visitors, over four hundred, but more bears came into the camp to enjoy the fun also. Three to four bears came into camp everyday and night. One dark red bear in particular seemed to enjoy the rubber bullets that were flung its way. Just kept coming back for more.

By the end of the rendezvous most folks had had a good time. Even those that had to bear close encounters with the wildlife.

At the closing counsel fire after all the prizes for the weekly events had been awarded to the winners the raffle drawings took place. The first ticket drawn for the Lyman flintlock rifle was Mr. Ken Christensen. The second ticket drawn for the Lyman percussion rifle was Mr. J.D. Griffith.

The guided cow elk hunt was won by an attendee of the rendezvous, Mr. Robert "Critter" Cooper. He is a trader that operates Piney Woods Trading Post.

Both rifle winners purchased tickets at the San Juan Wildlife Federation. The support that the San Juan Wildlife Federation has shown the Santa Fe Trail Rendezvous over the years is greatly appreciated. Thanks to all of you! — Charles C. Phelan Booshway & Ken Bomboy Segundo
