

ARCADIA, Oklahoma – The CMP Games – Oklahoma marked the introduction of a few new rifle and pistol matches, but one of the most important introductions was the first CMP Small Arms Firing School (SAFS) held away from Camp Perry, Ohio.

Randy Watson, 57, of Farmington, NM, drove 780 miles to attend the SAFS program and to participate in the GSM matches. “I’m new to the AR platform, so I’m just looking to get better acquainted with the gun and pick up some tips,” he said. Watson placed second (368-5X) in the SAFS EIC Special M16 match and earned his four introductory points. He also fired in the Garand-Springfield-Vintage Military 3-Gun series and finished 12th overall.

Congratulation Randy! If anyone knows of any of our own who make gun news. Do let us know!
