

RISING STAR!

Match Director Steve White issued a challenge to Iryna Plaksina and Joseph Gallegos during Monday's Youth Air Rifle League match. All targets used were the small bullseye Official Match Targets. Match Director White shot a score of 197, Iryna (Ira) shot 235 (highest score ever), and Joseph shot 77. Ira took the challenge match handily and won two of the four stages (Prone and Kneeling). Iryna has

The Summer League has come to an end. The Mystery Prize shoot seems to be popular and will continue into future leagues.

The Fall Leagues start on September 23rd and will continue to December 16th. Shooters may sign up on the Internet at http://www.sjwf.org/Airgun/ar_signup.htm, at the SJWF Gun Show, Civic Center, September 13-15th, and during the Youth Sports Fest on September 21st. Let's see if we can recruit more shooters. The Airgun page on the web site (http://www.sjwf.org/air_rifle.htm) should be up to date with the latest information. Please help us match directors recruit new shooters.

I'm asking for volunteers to help out at Sports Fest this Saturday. This event has the potential to be great sources for recruiting new airgun shooters. Please contact me if you can help.

The Summer League will have no end of league awards ceremony, as there were too few participants.—Steve White, Airgun Match Director
