

Ken Bomboy was taken from us suddenly and unexpectedly on December 20th. He was one of our clubs early, most stalwart and service-orientated members. With zeal, he served our community, our club, and most importantly our youth for many, many years. He will be sorely missed. A common colorful fixture at YouthFest, in his mountain man garb, he loved to wow the kids by allowing them to experience personally the unique feel, sound, & smoke of a real mountain man black powder rifle.

ALL SHOOTERS AND PAR-

ENTS: Since our shooting is conducted as a League, please notify me via phone or email (preferred) if you are unable to attend a League meeting or match. This will allow us to begin and complete the meetings and matches on time. In the past, we have waited for shooters who we thought might just be late, but never showed. We would appreciate the notification so the staff and shooters are not waiting for those who do not intend to attend the match. I thank in advance for your consideration and cooperation. Don't forget to bring your $5.00 match fee for each shooter for each match.
