BOARD MEMBER CANDIDATE BIOGRAPHIES

Jim Kennedy:

I, Jim Kennedy, have lived in Aztec since 1992. I have been a member of SJWF for many years. I have been married for 38 years and have three children and four grandchildren. I am currently director for the shotgun range and enjoy and support all the shooting disciplines at the SJWF. After serving on the board the past two years, I would like to be re-elected to that position again.

Patrick Kothe:

Hi, I'm Patrick Kothe. I am a IDPA shooter and I am the Match Director for the NSSF Rimfire Challenge. I'm a member of the Federation and I care about the future of our sports. Although I was not born here, I have lived here since I was a child. I work for Anderson Field Service, a locally owned company. I'm a proud conservative and supporter of the Constitution. I believe I would bring fresh ideas to the Board and deliver a different point of view. Thank you for your consideration.

Dana Little:

My name is Dana Little. I've lived in this area since 1990; my occupation was welding and I've been retired three years. I've been a member of SJWF for 5 years. Prior to living here I lived in Wyoming for about 20 years. I had a sporting goods store for 9 years in Douglas Wyoming. I was in the Army and served in Viet Nam. Currently I help run the trap shooting part of the shotgun range. While I lived in Wyoming, I was active in a club similar to the SJWF and was a Board Member and officer in the club.

YOUTH Air Rifle MATCH Personnel Needed!

The SJWF Youth Air Rifle program has been a great success, as one can surmise looking at the standings printed above. Steve White has done a great job organizing, and leading the program.

It has grown beyond a one man job. Steve is looking for adults who would be able and willing to help at the matches and support the youth in this program. If you are interested in working with these great youth, and giving Steve a hand, please call Steve White @ 320-3048!
