

NEWS

In Memory The past two falls and winters has taken some of our best from us. Condolences to their beloved families and friends left behind. . . . may they be comforted to know that the losses are not permanent. . . . but only await the certain future reunions, on the other side, as families will rebuild in a better happier more permanent place. They are already sorely missed.

Previous SJWF Vice President Phil Smith 57, passed Oct. 12, last year. (2016)

Long time SJWF supporter-member Herb Gephardt Below, passed Oct. 4, 2017 at age 78.

Tom Dugan, 91, right, passed away Nov. 8, 2017. Tom's very generous support for not only the SJWF, but our whole community, made a difference over and over, in the quality of life we take for granted.

Billy Stalcup left, who, with his wife Karen, have put on Sports Fests and Gun Shows for the club for many years. Passed on Nov. 29, 2017 at age 61.

DECEMBER IDPA MATCH

The monthly IDPA match was held on Sunday December 2nd with 38 shooters including 10 seniors, three ladies and eight new shooters. There were five challenging Courses of Fire, everyone had fun and there were no DQ's!

The overall best was Glenn Shelby with a score of 76.49, followed closely by Adam Martinez with a score of 89.93 and Dave McCall with 93.73. Glenn is an IDPA Distinguished Master and Adam is a USPSA Master. These guys are good!

There were 13 shooters on the Most Accurate list, meaning they had no Hits on Non-Threat targets. Topping the list was Hito Becker with 3 points down (and shooting with a revolver!). Hito shot three stages with 0 points down. Jeff Dyar and David Collinsworth, 11th and 12th respectively, both shot two stages with 0 points down. These shooters put them where they count!

Of Note, new shooters Krista & Jr Mircovich had a really good time according to Krista, who told me that she was "having a blast!" Of course she was having fun, she beat Jr by a score of, well, hmm..., let's just say she smoked him. You go Girl!

Our next match will be Sunday January 7th. Set up at 9am and shoot at 10am. For more information you can visit the SJWF website, and click on the SJDPA tab. To get your name on the sign-up list email our Match Director Tom Maddox, sjdpa2@gmail.com. See you there! —David Collinsworth.
